Signature - REQUIRED

By signing up for the Carpenters Club, you'll know that your monthly gift will provide stable, reliable funding toward our efforts to eliminate substandard housing and provide homeownership opportunities in Kent County.

Choose any amount that that you feel comfortable giving, and see how the impact of those dollars makes a difference in the lives of our Habitat families.

$15 a month will buy a front door to welcome new neighbors . . . and new possibilities.

$25 a month will buy cabinets for after-school snacks and dinner dishes.

$50 a month will buy light fixtures throughout the house to brighten lives.

$75 a month will buy flooring for solid footing and warm feet.

$100 a month will buy trusses for the roof to give support and security.

200 Carpenters Club members donating just $50 each month could build one more home in Kent County each year!

What is the Carpenters Club?

Central Delaware Habitat for Humanity's Carpenters Club is a monthly giving program that allows you to directly support affordable homeownership in our community with minimal effort. Each month, your contribution to CDHFH is automatically charged to your debit or credit card.

Membership in the Carpenters Club means more of your contribution goes directly to CDHFH's program with less processing costs.

Why Join?

Effortless donation with the elimination of time required to write and mail a check.

Save on postage.

Recognition in annual report and on our website for your committed support.

Satisfaction knowing your monthly donation ensures families can realize the dream of homeownership.

Easy termination, it only requires a written request.

How Do I Start?

Simply complete the agreement form and return it to CDHFH.

Transactions occur on the 20th of every month. We must receive a written notification by the 10th requesting termination or suspension of the charges.
