- Notifying the affiliate of any changes in family composition, income, or contact information
- Maintaining the Habitat home after purchase

Willingness to Partner Requirements

1. Each adult household member (over 18 at time of approval) must complete 250 sweat equity hours.
2. Household members aged 15-18 (at time of approval) must complete 100 sweat equity hours of their own.
3. Adult household members must complete all financial counseling requirements with NeighborGood Partners
4. You will maintain a minimum savings account balance of $1,000 through the time that you purchase your home
5. You and your household members are ambassadors of our program -- you will all be expected to participate in, work, and attend CDHFH events
6. You will be responsible for the maintenance of your home from the time that you purchase it
7. You will be responsible for paying the mortgage on your home on time so that others may benefit from the Habitat homeownership program

Failure to embrace the willingness to partner portion of the homeownership program may be grounds for disqualification or deselection from the program.

CDHFH HOMEOWNERSHIP PROGRAM FAQs

HOUSEHOLD SIZE

Q: My family size might change within the next 12 months; will that impact my ability to qualify?

A: It could. Your household size affects the minimum income requirement and the maximum income limit. You must fall within the income guidelines to qualify for the program. You are required to immediately report any changes to your household size. Please notify Habitat of any pending birth, adoption, foster child, immigration, new relationship (roommate, significant other, spouse), or any other additions or deletions throughout the application process. Once the change in household size has occurred, then Habitat will re-verify your ability to ensure that you continue to meet the program criteria for need and ability to pay.

Q: Do I list all my children as members of my household, even college-aged or adult children?

A: All members of the household must be listed on the application. Habitat counts the adults and children you listed on your application when calculating your household size. Household size determines how many bedrooms you need, and it determines the minimum income requirement and maximum income limit you must meet. Please review the income guidelines as you make the decision about whether to include adult children as household members.

Q: My cousin, who is a child under the age of 18, stays with me because his/her parents' home is overcrowded. Can I claim my cousin as a member of my household?

A: No. Minor children may only be listed on the application as a household member if the applicant, co-applicant, or another adult who resides in the household is the parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian of the child. Documentation is required to verify the members of your household and their relationship to you.

Q: I am separated from my spouse. Can I apply and qualify on my own?

A: For married applicants, the spouse must be listed as a co-applicant or a member of the household, unless a divorce is in process. If a divorce is in process, the divorce must be finalized before an applicant can be recommended to the Habitat board, which is generally within six months of the application submission. If divorce begins after selection and before the sale of the home, it will qualify as a change in household size, Habitat will need to re-verify your ability to ensure that you continue to meet the program criteria for need and ability to pay. Your divorce must be resolved before the sale of your home can be completed.

Q: Does Habitat give preference to families with a lot of children?

A: No. Central Delaware Habitat welcomes households of any size to apply, even households of one individual. Each year is unique for the location and sizes of homes that will be built. New construction homes are typically 3- or 4-bedroom designs. Habitat matches selected partner families to the appropriate-sized homes that best fit their needs and affordability. A 1-person household may be selected for a 3-bedroom home. Habitat policy does not require the household to be a perfect match for the home that is assigned, but Habitat makes all lot assignment decisions.

Q: What if my household grows after I purchase a Habitat home? Can I upgrade?

A: No. If you outgrow the Habitat home, Habitat does not offer an “upgrade” into a larger Habitat home. Habitat will assign you a home that is adequate to meet the needs of your household at the time of home sale. If a household is expecting a child, Habitat policy states that children age 0-23 months can room with the parent. Habitat is a needs-based program, offering affordable homeownership and the opportunity to build wealth. The longer you stay in the Habitat home, the more equity you can build. If you purchase a Habitat home and you outgrow it, then you have the option to sell the Habitat home, per the terms of your loan agreement. You can then use any proceeds from your Habitat home sale to purchase a different home on the open market, through a traditional lending institution. Habitat cannot guarantee a “forever home,” so it is up to you to think through your current situation, your future plans and the timing of your application for the Habitat program.

14. UNMARRIED ADDENDUM

FOR BORROWER SELECTING THE UNMARRIED STATUS

Lender instructions for using the Unmarried Addendum: The lender may use the Unmarried Addendum only when a borrower selected "Unmarried" in Section 1 and the information collected is necessary to determine how state property laws directly or indirectly affecting creditworthiness apply, including ensuring clear title. For example, the lender may use the Unmarried Addendum when the borrower resides in a state that recognizes civil unions, domestic partnerships or registered reciprocal beneficiary relationships or when the property is located in such a state. "State" means any state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.

If you selected "Unmarried" in Section 1:

Is there a person who is not your legal spouse but who currently has real property rights similar to those of a legal spouse?  No  Yes

If YES, indicate the type of relationship and the state in which the relationship was formed. For example, indicate if you are in a civil union, domestic partnership, registered reciprocal beneficiary relationship, or other relationship recognized by the state in which you currently reside or where the property is located.

Civil union  Domestic partnership  Registered reciprocal beneficiary relationship

Equal Credit Opportunity Act Notice

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that monitors compliance with this law concerning this company is the Federal Trade Commission, with offices at FTC Regional Office for the East Central region, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W., Washington D.C. 20580 or Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.

You need not disclose income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance payment if you choose not to do so. However, because we operate a Special Purpose Credit Program, we may request and require, in order to determine an applicant's eligibility for the program and the affordable mortgage amount, information regarding the applicant's marital status; alimony, child support and separate maintenance income; and the spouse's financial resources.

Accordingly, if you receive income from these sources and do not provide this information with your application, your application will be considered incomplete, and we will be unable to invite you to participate in the Habitat program.
